

Spring Break "PlayShop" for Kids
Paint Your Own Piggy Bank
Monday, March 22
1 pm to 2:30 pm
$10 tuition*

- Learn about ceramic glazes and firing, and paint your very own piggy bank (included.)
- Hoffman Center Clay Program volunteers will fire the piggy banks so they'll be ready by Friday afternoon of Spring Break.
- Bank of Astoria will proudly display your piggy bank in the Manzanita branch lobby, for the following week (optional.)

Open to all ages, but kids under 6 should be accompanied by a parent.

* Some scholarships available, thanks to support from Bank of Astoria.

Instructor: Bruce Phillips

After nearly 30 years as a paramedic, Bruce Phillips retired as a lieutenant from the Hillsboro Fire Department in 2006. He and his wife moved to the home they had built in the area 18 years ago. While he had only taken one clay class in high school, Bruce got hooked when he tried a hand-building class a couple of years ago. Now he's one of the primary volunteers in the Hoffman Center's Open Clay Studio, helping mentor others new to the medium. He has two sons, and one grandson (whose red piggy bank is shown in the picture above.)
